BROKEN DOOR

MINISTRIES

WHY ARE WE BROKEN DOOR MINISTRIES?

We believe that each of us is like a broken door! We are always in need of repair. Perhaps our door only needs the hinges oiled. Perhaps it needs to be planed to fit the opening now that the house has settled over the years. Perhaps it has some rotted-out spots in need of putty, sanding, and refinishing. No matter what it needs, it can be opened even in its broken condition.

Now comes the challenging part. We cannot, we must not, wait until the door is perfect before inviting others into our life to meet Jesus who dwells within. That we need to work on our door is true. The weathering and deterioration of the door is the sin in our life. The rain of selfishness, the wind of worldly concerns will always beat on our door. But if we wait for perfection, we will deny others the opportunity to meet Jesus. And it is through Jesus that we bring others to God. Jesus calls us as we are-broken-to be the door through which others can enter to meet Him.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

I'm broken, you're broken, God's not. Let's talk.

MEET J. BRIAN PUSATERI

A Messenger of Christ's Mercy and Unconditional Love

Brian Pusateri, the founder of Broken Door Ministries, is no ordinary speaker. His life story weaves together faith, resilience, and a profound message of God's mercy. This is a message that resonates deeply with broken hearts seeking healing.

The Journey Begins

Brian's journey took a transformative turn during an eight-day silent Christian retreat in November 2011. In that sacred silence, God spoke directly to his heart. Inspired by divine mercy and unconditional love, Brian founded 4th Day Letters and Broken Door Ministries. Little did he know that this calling would touch lives across the country and around the world.

A LIFE TRANSFORMED

In June 2014, Brian faced a dramatic health challenge-temporary loss of eyesight and a diagnosis of the rare, incurable neurological illness, MOG Antibody Disease. Yet, adversity only deepened his connection with God and underscored the urgency of his timeless message.

A MESSAGE OF BROKENNESS AND HEALING

Matthew 26:26 tells us the bread was blessed, broken and shared. Brian's dynamic style challenges everyone to undergo a transformation from a broken and scared life to a blessed and shared life that draws others to Christ. The retreat draws each attendee to a personal conversion.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

"Brian opens himself to all and helped us see that our brokenness isn't a deterrent to God's love and healing. Our retreat was truly a special day."

"I've attended many day retreats, go home, and forget all about it. This retreat will stay with me forever."

"I have been to many seminars, webinars, retreats and have been blessed to have read many great books, but I have to say ... this retreat impacted my life as to learning more about God's will in my life than any other book, resource, event ever has! Thanks be to God!"

Becoming Eucharist for a Starving World

The Bible states, “If we say, “We are without sin,” we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.” Most people struggle with some type of recurring sin. It seems no matter how hard they try, and no matter how many times they promise to change, they fall into that sin again. Also, nearly everyone has been wounded in some way by living in our broken world.

Brian uses stories, music, pictures, scripture, humor, and his own personal testimony to challenges everyone to undergo a transformation from a broken and scared life to a blessed and shared life that draws others to Christ.

During the retreat Brian explains how the actions that Jesus took during the Last Supper challenges us to become Eucharist for others. The retreat offers hope, healing, and change as it explores the profound implications of God’s mercy, forgiveness, and love.

Typically, The Blessed, Broken, and Scared retreats are held on Saturdays. Here is a sample schedule.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

“I first met Brian when he came to do a two-day retreat at a State Correctional Institution in Bellefonte, PA. I was very impressed with his dynamic and engaging presentation style. The content about his brokenness and how he turned his life around were very inspiring to not only me, but to the over 100 inmates that attended the retreat. As a result of this experience, I invited him to put on a 3- day mission at my parish, Ss. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Philipsburg, PA.”

“Over 75 parishioners attended that mission. During his talks, he was able to get them to realize that we are all broken in some way and that through the mercy of God and the support of others, we can work through our brokenness and have a more fulfilling and honest life. Rather than hiding behind the masks we wear, Brian inspired us to remove our masks and gave us help in how to deal with our issues, rather than hiding from them. As a result, my congregation is now equipped with the tools to get to the root cause of their sin and can eliminate it once and for all. I highly recommend Brian to other parishes and churches in need of revitalization.”

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

A CATHOLIC PRIEST PRAISES BRIAN'S AUTHENTICITY:

"The message of Broken Door Ministries is relevant because Brian's story of brokenness is our story too. Unless we get in touch with our brokenness and bring it to the cross, we'll never be free to live our Christian lives more fully."
